

GTG YOUTH COMPANY CONFLICT & ATTENDANCE POLICY

Please complete the Conflict Sheet carefully and truthfully, as it will be used in the casting process. Be sure to include any other production you are in at this time, vacations and trips, and all regular weekly commitments such as classes, lessons, and athletic activities. It is critical to successful casting and rehearsal scheduling to be as complete and accurate as possible. If a child with a large number of conflicts is being considered for a lead role, they may be asked to eliminate certain conflicts before casting. Please note there are no excused absences during Tech Week (Saturday, March 8th –Thursday March 13th.) Conflicts must be handed in by the last night of Callbacks, Tuesday January 8th, by 10:00 p.m. Any new conflicts received after that will be considered unexcused absences. New Conflicts are not accepted at the parent meeting.

Attendance will be taken at each rehearsal. Attendance at all rehearsals for which you are scheduled are mandatory. Cast members missing more than two rehearsals, other than those listed on your conflict sheet or due to illness, may be replaced, regardless of part. Arriving more than 30 minutes late or leaving early from a rehearsal is considered an absence. Work (for those who may have a job) is not an excuse to miss rehearsal Any Cast Member missing a rehearsal during Tech Week may be replaced, regardless of attendance record.

I have read this document and understand the terms.
